O objetivo deste curso é oferecer um panorama geral de algumas das questões que marcaram a retomada do interesse dos antropólogos pela economia nas últimas duas décadas. O curso pretende explorar ao mesmo tempo como essas questões estão inseridas em debates mais gerais interdisciplinares, na definição de novas áreas de interesse, de modulações conceituais e de instrumentos de análise. As sessões do curso estarão dedicadas a temáticas específicas, contando, em vários casos, com um ou vários expositores convidados, além da equipe de professores.
